ONLINE GRIEVANCES REDRESSAL SYSTEM

The Municipal Corporation has launched the online grievance redressal system on 19.12.2012. The link for registration of complaints has been made available on the official website www.mcchandigarh.gov.in of MCC. The grievance redresseal system deals with the following complaints regarding:-

BUILDING & ROADS (Roads, Pavement Damage, Pot Holes in front of house, water stagnation in front of house, Pit Dug up not filled in front of house)

ELECTRICAL (Street Lighting)

ENFORCEMENT (Illegal Advertisement, Temporary Encroachment)

HEALTH & SANITATION (Meat Hygiene, Removal of Dead Animals, Sanitation, Stray Dogs & Cattle)

HORTICULTURE (Cutting of Grass in the park infront of house, Pruning of tree infront of House, Play equipment broken in the park infront of house)

WATER SUPPLY (Leakage, No Water, Muddy Water)

SEWERAGE (Sewerage of water supply, Blockage, Over Flowing, Manhole Cover Missing)
As soon as the citizens make a complaint on the online grievance system, the system immediately generates a complaint number and send it by SMS to the mobile number of complaint. Simultaneously the concerned officer mapped for the respective complaint receives a message related to the complaint. The mapping of officers has been created in such way, the system automatically locate the concerned officer by nature and area of complaint & generate SMS accordingly.

As soon as the complaint is redressed, the SMS reaches the citizen that his complaint has been redressed.

2-day MC drive to clear cow dung ends

CHANDIGARH: The municipal corporation in Nanded carried out a mass drive for the second day to remove cow dung from the parks in Milk Colony, Dhansu. Acting on directions of Punjab and Haryana high court, the MC conducted a two-day drive, which began on Saturdays. The drive began at 9.30 am and continued till 6 pm. Though some locals protested, but with presence of heavy police force, no untoward incident was reported. As many as 50 tractors, trolleys, seven air conditioners, five garbage trucks and over 30 employees of various departments of civic body were pressed into service for the drive.

Senior officials, Joint commissioners of MC, Rajeev Gupta, MC chief engineer, Mrinal, Assistant engineer and engineers of most of the departments were present.

Now, MC to put list of gardeners, tubewell operators online

RATINDEE NAGHATTI

CHANDIGARH: MC has now also decided to put the list of gardeners (small) and tubewell operators on the MC’s website. Such initiatives are also a part of the Smart City Mission.

The decision was taken as the civic body was receiving numerous complaints of gardeners not coming on duty to maintain various green belts and gardens in the city.

Similarly, there were complaints that area residents were not aware of the tubewell operators and their mobile numbers.

A senior official of the Municipal Corporation said that bringing more transparency, the same list would also be circulated among the area councillors and residents’ welfare associations. The MC will also take the details of Employees Provident Fund (EPF) from the contractors, which were engaged to provide gardeners to the MC’s Horticulture Wing.

Recently, major element of funds pertaining to the Employees Provident Fund (EPF) contribution of the contractual staff in the horticulture wing of the Chandigarh Municipal Corporation was detected.
